

FOR LURE TEELER SHEARS A LAMB

Ralph Wagner, Half-Brother of Abe Majors, Gathered in
By the Police.

COUNTRY LAD THE VICTIM

Young Man Who Peers Into the Future Lost Practically All His Money in So Doing.

Announcing by placard his ability "to find more good than evil in other men" and to be able, through myrtle power, to see into and foretell the future of any one else, Ralph Wagner, a half-brother of Abe Majors, made a sorry failure today in not being able to see into his own future half an hour ahead.
Peering into the hidden future of Leo Paffery, Wagner failed to see the approach of evil, that is evil for Wagner, in the form of Detective Earl Ripley, and the looker-into the crystal globe, the diviner of the future, etc., etc., lies in the city jail under a charge of swindling Paffery out of $6.

Wagner, who has gained notoriety through several appearances at police headquarters and because of his relationship with Abe Majors, became recently a fortune-teller, seer and clairvoyant man with the darkened chambers in the Globe hotel at 269 south Main street. According to placards in the hallway Wagner, the mystic, for only $1 could tell you almost anything over the money and make the wish, silently, for what he desired most.
This morning Leo Paffery, an unsophisticated youth who was wandering about the city, entered the chamber and entered the curtain.

Then it was simple for a while for Wagner, judging from Paffery's story, and it did not take long. Paffery's Bible Wagner asked Paffery to place upon the open leaves all the money he had. Paffery had just $2.75 but following instructions. Then he was asked by Wagner to place his open hands over the money and make the wish,
silently, for what he desired most.
In the uncanny air of the chamber, Paffery went through it all and after a minute's silence, nodded his head that he had "wisdom."

"All right, raise your hands," commanded Wagner, and then with a swoop Wagner picked up all but the half dollar and the twenty-five cent piece.

When Paffery demanded the $6 Wagner, it is alleged, backed towards an open bureau drawer and Paffery took no chances, but secured to the police station a few minutes afterwards a complaint and warrant was issued and Wagner was arrested.

OLD ACQUAINTANCES MEET.

Gathering on Thursday at Beehive House Was Much Enjoyed.

A most enjoyable gathering of old acquaintances was that given at the Beehive house on June 30 at 2 p. m. by Mrs. Juliana L. Smith and Mrs. Donnetta E. Kosler. It was a bringing together of those who seldom see each other and whose lives have been so filled with rich experiences in the past.
Conversation upon topics remembered, half-forgotten, awakened upon sight of each other was a happy feature of the day's enjoyment. A splendid, old fashioned dinner was served at 2 p. m. and more guests were seated. During the day many reminiscences of Nauvoo were related, it transpiring that of the number gathered at the table there were 12 who had lived in Nauvoo and not a few had known the Prophet Joseph Smith. The names of those present were registered as follows: Agnes Taylor Swartz, Julia Crane Howe, Lucy Walker Kimball, Mary Ann Oakley,

THROUGH GRAND CANYON.

Venturesome Party Planning Trip by Bout From Green River.

Another trip through the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, starting at Green River, Utah, is to be undertaken this fall by N. Hallaway of Richmond. It will be the third time that this hardy trapper has made the journey. This time it is the purpose to take moving pictures of the stirring events along the way.

The trip usually takes six weeks during which time the boats glide between enormous rock walls, down roaring rapids, or in the swiftly moving stream.
J. F. Stone, president of the Central National Bank of Columbus, Ohio, made the 1500 miles trip last fall and was member of the second party to make the trip. Mr. Stone took some 2,000 pictures on the trip.
Two boats will go down the canyon this fall and it is Mr. Stone and his party respond to the invitation extended them, the party will take four boats on the trip.

GOV. SPRY TO FIRE MOTORDROME GUN

Chief Executive Will Start the Millennium Races on Pie Pan Tonight.

At 8 o'clock this evening, Governor Wm. Spry will fire the gun that starts the initial race at the new Wandamere motordrome. A few seconds later local race enthusiasts will see exhibitions of speed such as has never occurred in this state before, as the rivers begin to tear around the track at a speed of better than a mile a minute.
This is the promise made by Manager Jack Ripley, and judging from the speed trials made during the past week, he is perfectly safe in his predictions.
A "phone message from Wandamere this morning states that everything is in shape for the races tonight. The lights have all been tried out and found to be in shape. The new gravel walks around the track have been completed.
The automobile drive on Thirteenth South to the automobile entrance is being sprinkled to lay the dust. Workmen finished the surfacing of the track last night. The new stand for Held's band is completed, and Manager Prince says he feels as sure as anything should not go off in first class manner.
President J. G. McDonald said this morning that they would be able to take care of the crowd, no matter how large it might be. The arena itself will take care of an event of twenty thousands, while 5,000 can be seated comfortably. The seating has been arranged for box seats, grandstand and bleachers.

PICKPOCKETS ARRESTED.

Detective Ripley Makes a Smart Capture of Crooks on Main Street.

Frank Hoyt, believed to be a member of a gang of "dip" men, is held in the city jail, while the police are waiting for some one to prove ownership of a pocketbook containing $30, so that the suspicion can be verified.
Hoyt was arrested by Detective Earl C. Ripley yesterday afternoon on Main street near Second South street. Detective Ripley had noticed three suspicious characters loitering in front of the Second South and Main streets, and following them, saw them jump hurriedly out of the car in front of the Keyhole hotel.
As he watched them, Ripley noticed Hoyt slip something into his pocket, and then start across the street. Hoyt and his partners were captured on Main street near Second South street. Ripley, fol-
out of the car in front of the Keyhole hotel.

MAD DOG SCARE.

Small Fox Terrier Creates Somewhat
Of a Scare on the Streets.

A small fox terrier created somewhat of a panic at 9:30 this morning in the vicinity of the postoffice by running down the street snapping at the legs of pedestrians and jumping the leg of a baby carriage and worrying the coverlet in the go-cart. "Mad dog" was the thought that simultaneously leaped into the minds of the scores of people who stopped to witness the performance. Men and women were forced to pick up their skirts to free them from the teeth of the dog, and one fond mother had to take her baby in her arms and run into which the dog insisted on jumping and snapping at the coverlets.
The dog had such a playful, frisky manner at times that his acts belied his looks, and the numerous on-lookers were in doubt whether he really meant business or was just out on a fourth of July frolic. Finally he disappeared down a side street, mouth frothing, tongue lolling, and dragging the ground, yelling like a crazy thing.
